Yesenia Maldonado
as your senior year comes to an end,
we want you to remember all
of the beautiful things you have done,
as well as all of the things
that have challenged you.
Remember them as stepping stones
for where you are in this moment.
We ask that you do not ponder on the "what ifs." As Ecclesiastes states,
"it is not wise to ask such questions."
Instead, recall those moments
as lessons and experience.
Take them into consideration
for the next step in your path.
Remember that you are not alone;
you have your family.
We love you!

to it, you can do anything.

When you were in Pre-K,
the year 2020 seemed so far in the future,
yet in a blink of an eye, here we are,
in your senior year of high school
and preparing to celebrate your graduation!
There are not enough words to express
how proud we are of you!
You are an amazing young lady
with such a beautiful future ahead of you.
Look at the photo and never forget that wonderful
lady in the background, your Grammie.
We all prayed for you to be born,
but she was convinced it was her prayer
one night that made you a reality.
Never forget you are a living miracle
and your identity as a child of God!
If you will do that, true peace will be
with you all the days of your life.
We love you! Congratulations!

Mom, Dad and Roy-Roy

Marshall Perryman
These last four years flew by
in a blink of an eye.
You accomplished so much;
you just had to try.
In music, JAG-K and sports you partook;
While getting good grades
when you opened your books
Your leadership skills I witnessed develop and bloom.
It was hard not to notice
when you walked in a room.
As you move on to follow
your wishes and dreams,
The world can be tough,
even harder than it seems.
By maintaining your determination,
You will be a SUCCESS
no matter your vocation!

With love and adoration,
MOM

Emma Pfannenstiel

pieces fall into place.
Until then,
Work hard, live, laugh,
love, smile and know
that everything happens
for a reason!

To my kid:
Adults don't know everything,
and neither will you.
Question everything.
Break a few rules.
Be content, not complacent.
Surround yourself
with people, places and things
that challenge you and
encourage you to grow.
Be happy now.
Have fun now.
You got this.

Love, Mom :)

Cassidy Prough
